Allow for an option to block the change of server connection Future Consideration

- BB Beat Bucher
- Forum name: #SalesPad Products

In a context of running multiple GP instances (PROD, DEV, TEST) from various servers or SQL instances, it would be great to be able to block the options to change the server connection from the SalesPad Desktop client, like in GP the ability in DEX.ini to prevent users from switching servers in the login screen. This would allow to test various versions from different clients without having to setup multiple app servers.