EDI Validation Toggle Already Exists

- Jacob Beimers
- Forum name: #SalesPad Products

In the Business Object Mapping, we should add a per-mapping toggle for if the resulting XMLs will validate against our version of the SPS Schema. This will allow for customers to send XMLs that violate the schema rules, but will still send, and not pop-up a validation error.

Currently, customers are asked to reach out to SPS to have them modify our EDI transactions after we send them if they need to send or retrieve non schema permitted values.