

Can I set a required ship date in SalesPad Cloud?

Megan De Freitas - 2024-12-02 - FAQ

Yes! Required Ship Date is an editable field on every SalesPad Cloud sales document.

The screenshot displays a SalesPad Cloud order form for document ORD000000004. The form includes various fields for customer information, addresses, and shipping details. The 'Req Ship Date' field is highlighted with a red box, showing the date 8/9/2016. Other visible fields include Customer (Nik Czuprinski), Billing Address (3200 Eagle Park Dr NE, Suite 100, Grand Rapids, Michigan, 49525), Shipping Address (3200 Eagle Park Dr NE, Suite 100, Grand Rapids, Michigan, 49525), Doc Date (8/2/2016), Customer PO (1568), Reference No (784552), Price Level (No Price Level), Location (MAIN), Shipping Method (No Shipping Method), Payment Terms (Due on receipt), Tax Code (Michigan Sales Tax), and Salesperson (No Salesperson). The top right of the form shows a progress indicator of 66% and a total amount of $13.28, along with buttons for Void, Transfer, Allocate, and More.
