SalesPad for BC - Credit Card Processing

Cavallo Support - 2026-08-19 - Credit Card Processing

Overview

Credit Card Processing is an add-on feature to Mission Control's workflow engine that enables users to automate their payments on Business Central sales documents. This article will detail the current provider(s) these sku is available for, what functionality is included and how to configure this action within the Mission Control settings pages!

Current Provider(s):

At the current time, Mission Control has an API integration to the below payment processors:

- Nodus Payfabric