Security Editor | SalesPad Desktop

Cavallo Support - 2025-06-05 - Video

With SalesPad's Security Editor, you can control your users and groups and the security for each. From here, you can also assign properties to individual users or edit group securities. Additional options are available through the subsettings. In order for changes in the security settings to take effect, you must log off SalesPad and log back in.